

Amid Terminations and Cost of Living Increases, Source Owner SOUR

This is the text of an email being circulated by Shaun Pennington, owner of the VI Source online newspaper and dedicated DeWolf wolverine. For those who don't remember, DeWolf sent a letter to Shelly Moorehead of the VI Reparations Movement telling Moorehead that his organization needed to follow the example of his wife and Pennington's Rwanda project that raised its own funds and didn't utilize one single dollar of VI Government money. The letter was signed by John DeWolf himself. Shortly after we published the letter, sources provided copies of 14 cancelled checks paying a monthly stipend of $10,000, for 14 consecutive months to the first lady. Ironically, the memo section of each check and the memo directing that the VI Lottery make the payments, all indicated that the Lottery funds were to be used for the RWANDA PROJECT. This was clear and documented evidence that John DeWolf lied in his letter to Moorehead. However, in typical Wolverine fashion, Pennington lays blame on "Politics and vindictiveness". The text of the email follows:

Every two years since 2008 Rwanda Project USVI has taken 10 to 11 high school students from the Virgin Islands to the tiny African nation of Rwanda where they have learned untold lessons about divisiveness and solidarity, poverty and joy, ignorance and education, sorrow and brother-and-sisterhood, abandonment and redemption, war and peace, depression and love. They have witnessed firsthand the historic ravages of bigotry and political manipulation while also experiencing the miracles that love and leadership have wrought in Rwanda over the last 17 years since genocide destroyed this strikingly beautiful land of a 1000 hills.

I have been proud to be one of the three founders of Rwanda Project USVI whose mission is to complete meaningful community service projects while fostering ongoing relationships between the Rwandan young people, organizations and government and the young people, organizations and government of the U.S. Virgin Islands that will result in an exchange of ideas and projects that will raise the consciousness of all concerned.

In prior years, as a summer enrichment program, we were blessed by substantial contributions from the Virgin Islands Lottery. Sadly, politics and vindictiveness in our community has made our board decide not to request support from the Lottery this year, through no fault of the Lottery.

That said, we are selling raffle tickets to raise $30,000 to go toward the Rwanda 2012 trip. All of the money raised goes directly to our young people and the projects they will be working on, along with our fund raising efforts.

Adult chaperones on this trip pay their own way.

Cecile still writes checks on behalf of CONVICTED PEDOPHILE JEFFREY EPSTEIN. How bout Cecile writing a check to cover the costs of your trip to Rwanda? By The Way, "Charity begins at Home". If you folks truly give a damn about the people of the Virgin Islands, those funds would be better spent assisting the children of those employees that have been terminated as a result of the inept management of the territory's affairs by John DeWolf and his stable of 11 Jackasses in the VI Legislature
