

Bryan's "Top Dog"

DemMansay.com has received in excess of 75 emails from rightfully angry employees of the Department of Labor. After unsuccessful employment stints at TSA, VI Police Department, and the District Court, where she received no love from her co-workers, Diedre Finch found a savior in Commissioner of Labor Albert Bryan. Commissioner Bryan hired Finch as an investigator for the Workman's Compensation Division. According to Bryan, Finch is his "Top Dog". To prove his loyalty and support of his "Top Dog", Bryan has awarded Finch a $10,000 salary increase after a mere six months on the job.

The generous increase has caused a negative backlash, not only among the other employees at Labor, but also on the domestic front. Fellow labor employees are enraged that the increase came after just 6 months of employment, while for years they have been fighting, unsuccessfully, to get salary increases. Reportedly, VIPD Lieutenant Ruby Urgent has no problem with the sweetheart increase, as long as it came without any strings attached. Lt Urgent has taken exception to the Commissioner referring to her sweetheart as his "Top Dog" and she's made it clear that she will not sit idly by and allow the apple of her eye to be stolen by Commissioner Bryan.
