

In March of 2009, the Honorable Aurelio Pellegrini, Mayor of Montescudaio, Italy, invited the people of the United States Virgin Islands to unite the historic towns of Charlotte Amalie, Christiansted, and Frederiksted in a Twin-City relationship with Montescudaio, the picturesque 11th-century town situated in the hills of Tuscany, in perpetuity. And in response to Mayor Pellegrini's invitation, the people of the Virgin Islands, through Resolution No. 1744, dated December 21, 2009, expressed their collective desire to embark on the Trans-Atlantic brotherhood. This evening's celebration marks the official consummation of that relationship.
